PRICES and THAT ARE QUALITY MATCHED CAPONS TURKEYS 38c

FOWL GUINEAS ROASTING CHICKENS

to Preserve ... $1.10 CHICORY SALAD 120
FANCY GAULIFLOWER 150 STRING BEANS, qt.

Extra Special ALL WEEK

Our Fancy Sirloin Steak 25c We want everybody to learn the grade of Beef we cut (no cows, no bulls.)

PINEAPPLES 200 RED BANANAS 50 CASABA MELONS

SOMERS

H. T. MILLER'S School for Dancing

Opens Saturday, October 30th, 1915

> CLASSES: Beginners 2:30 o'cleck Advanced 4 o'clock

SEASON 1915-1916 DANCES Maurice Pericon, Hoberto's Tango, Globe Trot, Peabody One Step, Hesitation Canter, Mandalay One Step, Walk Waltz, Combination, Corte Fox Trot, Twinkle Fox Trot, L'Opera Waltz, American Gavoth, Modern Waltz, Standardized One Step, by Converse of Thinking Socialized in New Gongress of Dancing Societies in New

Telephone 1082

DON'T TRUST TO LUCK

buying Feed. Even what's called good luck may strike you in the wrong way, sometimes, Buy your Feed here; there is nothing of the luck slement about the stock-it has been selected with great care and discrimmation, so as to get the best. That's what you will get here. The best at tair prices.

CHAS. SLOSBERG 3 Cove Street

Wedding Gifts

Nothing surpasses Sterling Silver for a wedding present. No make of silver is better than GORHAM SILVER, the line we sell. A large variety of new pieces at popular prices just re-

No trouble to show.

Established 1872 THEPLAUT-CADDEN CO. JEWELERS PLAUT CADDEN SUILDING

Ernest E. Bullard J. VIOLIN Sind TEACHER

Violins sold on easy terms! For appointments address E. E. BULLARD, Bliss Place, Nor-

MISS FARNHAM HAIR and Specialist

HARPER METHOD
Also MANICURING

Theyer Building, Room 304, Franklin Square Norwick-Mon., Thur, Fri., Sat.

Telephone 578

stern Connecticut equal to The Bul-

The Bulletin

Norwich, Saturday, Oct. 30, 1915.

VARIOUS MATTERS

W. J. Hull will speak at the Spiritual Academy Sunday morning.—Ad Some good mackerel caught cean Beach have been brought Friends from Norwich have bee The McWilliams Bros. scow Red Eagle has been towed from Norwich to New London.

Special musical service at Church Sunday evening at 7.30.

At South Manchester John Hughes of Coventry has sold to George C. Nichols lot No. 15 of the Greenburst George Dean of Niantic caught a coon Wednesday night which weighed 18 pounds. This makes his sixth coon

The Aetna bowling alleys will be opened Monday evening at 7.30 sharp.—Adv.

The choir of the Uncasville M. E church was entertained at the home of Mri Thomas Spiers in New Lon-don Thursday evening.

Ghosts, spooks and witches will wander around tonight and it will be very unsafe for cabbage heads and front gates to be out after dark.

Mrs. Joseph Hyde and daughter Miss Elsie Hyde of Hamilton avenue, East Side have returned, after visit-ing friends in Ellington and Stat-

The Storrs college stock judging team took second honors last week in a general stock judging contest, held at the Hugh Chisholm farm, Portches-January 14th, concert by Trinity, College Musical clubs of Hartford at Trinity M. E. church:-Adv. Honest sportsmen suffer because of the carelessness of some hunters, who irritate property owners by leaving bars-down, trespassing on posted land has been ordered to report on board the cutter Itasca, at Baltimore, for duty in Porto Rico. E. L. Reeves of the Wilson farm East Lyme, lost a valuable helfer calf a few days ago. On searching for it he found it smothered in a swamp ear Pattegansett lake The teachers of the Mystic Oral school and their friends came up on a strawride Friday evening to the home of John Finnegan, in Ledyard.

Dr. Carl Michel, assistant surged at the guard armory at Fort Trumbul

where a chicken supper was seroed. "The Man of the Hour," with Rob-ert Warwick, five reel World feature, at the Colonial theatre today.—Adv.

At Old Saybrook Miss Dorothy Ba-ton Clark and George Edward Kirt-land were married Wednesday after-noon at the home of the bridg's par-ents by Rev. William F. White. The bridesmaid was Miss Charlotte Chap-pell of Norwich.

Eight thousand, sk hundred and buty dollars is the total amount of the New London Young Women's Christian association fund to date. It has the hope of the committee that the total desired amount; $10,000, might storage to the country society of the Second Connection total desired amount; $10,000, might specific the second connections are society of the Second Connections to the country society of the Second Connections to the second connection to the second connectio

Mr. and Mrs. Pierre L. Schellens of Groton have received a cablegram from the state department of England that their eldest son, Richard, who is connected with a Red Cross camp in Servia, is safe. The last letter received from him was dated Sept. 14.

"Wild Posies" is not a book of light verse: it finds tongues in trees, books in running brooks, sertnons in stones and good in everything. On sale at Porteous & Mitchell Co. and book stores Adv.

Internal Revenue Collector James J. Walsh, of Meriden, has been authorized by the United States treasury department to commission Lawrence J. Gill of Bridgeport to be deputy collector of Connecticut and Rhode Island at a salary of $2,000 per annum.

"Wild Posles" is not a book of hymns, although it makes appeal to what is moral and genuine in every heart. On sale at all the book stores, Porteous & Mitchell Co. and by the author.—Adv.

Speakers at the Women's Foreign Missionary meeting to be held at the Jewett City Baptist church next week Wednesday will include Mrs. W. T. Elmore of South India, Miss. Grace Colburn, president of the New England district, Mrs. C. W. Gale, Mrs. J. B. Kent, state director, and Mrs. Lewes D. Bouch of Newwicks lames D. Rough of Norwich.

The attractive and substantial binding of Wild Posles makes it a suftable gift, expressive of friendsship and good taste of the giver. On sale at book stores, by Porteous & Mitchell Co. and by the author. Adv.

Woman Who Posed as Widow of Hen-

ONE YEAR SENTENCE FOR MRS. ZORAH EMMA JOHNSON

ry M. Flagler. New York, Oct. 29 .- Mrs. Zorah Emof Henry M. Flagler, late Standard Oil milionaire, procured from Frank J. Mahoney, a telephone operator. ma Johnson, a nelderly woman, who Oil milionaire, procured from Frank J. Mahoney, a telephone operator, his savings and all he could berrow from relatives, a total of about $5,200, was sentenced today by Judge Mulqueen to service from three to nine years in Auburn prison.

Was destroyed by hie about midnight
Friday.

S500,000 ENDOWMENT FOR

COLLEGE OF SURGEONS.

Aubirn prison.
At. Mrs. Johnson's trial, Mahoney At. Mrs. Johnson's trial, Mahoney testified that he gave the money on her representation that she was Mrs. Flagler and would make him her private secretary at $20,000, a year. He was to receive also a bonus of $100,000 when the defendant's mythical castic in Spair materialized.

SUFFRAGE MEETING

Dr. Anna Howard Shaw One of the Speakers.

Boston, Oct. 29.—Woman suffrage advocates tonight thronged a hall to listen to addresses by Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, president of the national organization, and United States Senator Borah of Idaho. Dr. Shaw condemned some of the methods used by the college of the state of instruction in his state had been a success and that there was every reason to believe that similar results would follow wherever woman receiled "hor rights."

If was announced also that an addition and the south of $500,000 would be sought.

The name of Dr. Wilfred T. Grenfell, the Labrador medical missionary, was added to the list of honorary, fellows by the college, and President Finley of Baltmore and other officers were relected.

If James, president of the University of Illinois, urged greater support by the state of instruction in medicine.

Maryhasville, Mo.

Maryhasville, Mo. Oct. 29.—A monument marking the original graves of Daniel Boone and his wife Bebecca Bryan Boone and his wife Bebecca Bryan Boone, was dedicated at Bryan Cemetery here today. Ceremonies were under the auspices of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Wany preminent citizens of New York last night and welcomed several thousand that there were removed to Frankfort, Ky, in 1845, but it was deemed fitting to mark the original graves. Booke selected the site for his grave.

PERSONALS

Thomas McGuire of Baltic was tonington visitor Thursday. Miss E. B. Fitspatrick has been in New York on a business trip this week. Frank Charron of Norwich was in East, Hampton on business Wednes-

Judge Edgar W. Lewis of Chester was a business caller in Norwich this William Bishop and Albert F. Green of Norwich were at Pernside, Lord's Point, early in the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney L. Chappell of Norwich were at Old Saybrook Wed-nesday to attend the Kirtland-Clark wedding.

Miss Ruth Kind of Norwich is the week end guest of Miss Myrtle Shep-ard, of 1403 Boulevard, New Haven. She will attend the Colgate-Yale foot-ball game there Saturday.

Wilmington are guests of Mrs. Dar-row's mother, Mrs. Della Greene, of Jordan. Mr. Darrow has been called to preach in West Hartford.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin N. Alling, and daughter, Miss Grace Alling, and Miss Sophia Hartmann of New Haven, motored to Norwich and were the guests of Miss Belle G. Spaulding of Hamilton avenue over Sunday. The party including Miss Spaulding, left Sunday evening for an auto trip through the western part of the state.

WEDDINGS

Glacken-McGowan. John Glacken and Miss Margaret deGowan, both residents of Trading McGowan, both residents of Trading Cove, were united in marriage in St. Patrick's church Friday morning at 7 o'clock by Rev. J. H. Broderick, rector of the church. Joseph Campion was best man and Miss Lillian Ring was the bride's maid of honor.

The groom is the son of Daniel and Rose Coyle Glacken, and was born in Ireland. He is employed in the cutlery plant. Mrs. Glacken is the daughter of Bernard and Mary Vella McGowan and is also a native of Ireland. Both bride and groom are land. Both bride and groom are well known to many friends who extend their best wishes for a happy fu-ture. Mr. and Mrs. Glacken will re-side in this city. Kellenberg-Mann.

There is local interest in the nouncement of the marriage of Andrew James Kellenberg and Miss Rita Henrietta Mann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mann of New Haven. The wedding took place at the home of the bride, No. 519 Whitney avenue. New Haven, on Thursday. Mr. Kel-lenberg is a salesman for the Hawley-Folsom company of Boston and is a frequent visitor in Norwich. FUNERAL

Miss Annie Monahan. The funeral of Miss Annie Monahan was held Friday morning at 8.30 o'clock from the pariors of Shea & Burke, with a mass at St. Patrick's church at 9 o'clock, Rey. F. J. Kuster officiating. At the service Some Sweet Day was rendered by Thomas Quilty of Holyoke and Mrs. F. L. Farrell rendered Nearer, My God. to Thee, at the close of the mass. The bearers were Michael and James Walsh and burial took place in St. Mary's cemetery. The large attendance included people from out of town and there were many beautiful floral tokens of esteem.

Tred T. Bunce, Mrs. Samuel Wilson; ice cream, Mrs. William Risley, Mrs. C. Edward Smith, Mrs. Reben P. Potter. The class members all served as waiters.

In the evening, the teacher of the class, Deacon C. Edward Smith, made the announcements and the entertaining program comprised readings by Miss Grace Randall of Williamntic, selections by Harder's orchestra, violing solos by Miss Filtzabeth Lane and whistling solos by Miss Vera Biair.

GIRLS' GREETING LED funeral of Miss Apple Monshar per held at the Second Congregational church Friday evening from 6.30 to 7 o'clock. The following committee had charge of the excellent menu: Mrs.

Roses All Along the Months. Among the successful amateur ros rowers is Henry G. Aurello of 32 Peck street. He has a Capt. Christie rose bush that has kept blossoming every month since June and is still producing fine pink blossoms of sumner size and quality. October Thunder Shower. Several flashes of lightning and Water Board Had Routine Business Merely routine business was trans-acted on Friday evening at the monthly meeting of the board of water commissioners which was held at the water office in the town hall.

Barn Burned in Bozrah.

Meeting in Boston.

Boston, Oct. 29.—An endowment of $500,080, for which the fellows of the American College of Surgeons have been striving for two years, was comdant's mythical castle pleted tonight, according to an announcement at the annual meeting of that organization. The aim of the college is to raise the standard of surgery in the medical schools of the country. It was announced also that an additional endowment of $500,000 would be

LAUNCH ON FIRE IN HARBOR

Handsome Power Craft Belonging to Julian L. Williams Caught Fire From Unknown Cause-Boat Considered a Total Loss-Owner Had Been at Work on It During Afternoon-Had Left it But Short Time Before Boys Saw Smoke.

The Roamer, the large, handsome fire. The upper part of the boat was power boat owned by Julian L. Williams, commodore of the Chelsea Boat ly damaged. The hull was tied up club, was totally destroyed by fire mear Dawley's wharf for the night which broke out about 6 o'clock. Fri- Mr. Williams is at a loss as to what which broke out about 6 oclock. Friday evening as the boat lay anchored in the Thames some distance off Central wharf. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Mr. Williams is at a loss as to what started the fire as everything seemed all right when he left the boat. The unknown.

Mr. Williams is at a loss as to what started the fire as everything seemed all right when he left the boat. The unknown.

Roamer was the largest power boat in the Chelses. Boat club fleet and was the laborately fitted, the interior being finished in mahogany. The large quantity of said of the control of the control of the control of the control of the fire as everything seemed all right when he left the boat. The loss is covered by insurance. The control of th the boat Friday afternoon and left it shortly before 6 o'clock. He had hardly come ashore when smoke was seen pouring from the forward part of the boat and in a few minutes the woodwork was burning briskly. Two boys who were out in a boat near the spot where The Roamer was anchored, saw the smoke and hurrying ashore they secured hand extinguishers, but were unable to get aboard when they returned owing to the dense smoke.

A telephone call was sent into the fire department and they made a quick response. Captain Edward S. Silnson of the auto chemical company secured a couple of rowboats and some of the firemen rowed out from the end of Central wharf to the Roamer and towed the burning boat inshore. Two streams of chemical were used to extinguish the flames. Previously the firemen used a small can of chemical but this made little impression on the

MISS BESSIE WHITING

HALLOWE'EN SOCIAL

Was Heard with Great Pleasure

Rendering of "Under Cover."

GAVE DRAMATIC READING

SALE AND ENTERTAINMENT. HALLOWE'EN DECORATIONS ducted by Gleaners' Class of Cen tral Baptist Bible School.

Two hundred attended the dramatic reading Under Cover, by Miss Bessie G. Whiting of Boston, held at Trinity Methodist Episcopal church on Friday evening under the auspices of the Epworth League. The reading was in three acts and between each act selections were rendered by a double quartette, with Miss Annie E. Tafft at the piano. On Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock the Sleaners' class of the Central Baptist Sible school opened a sale in Bush-iell chapel and in the evening they conducted an entertainment in con-nection with the sale, having a good attendance during both the afternoon

lowing:
Cake, Mrs. C. Eugene Saunders, Mrs.
Floyd C. May, Mrs. Milo R. Waters:
apron, Mrs. Frederick M. Packer, Mrs.
James Parker, Mrs. M. Elizabeth Hall;
candy, Mrs. George W. Carter, Mrs.
Fred T. Bunce, Mrs. Samuel Wilson;
Ice cream, Mrs. William Risley, Mrs.
Louis Stockwell, Mrs. H. D. Aogers; tea, Mrs. C. Edward Smith, Mrs. Reiben P. Potter. The class members all served as waiters.

Miss Agnes Chapman was in general charge of the arrangements, while
Miss Agnes Chapman was in general charge of the arrangements, while
Miss Agnes Chapman was in general charge of the arrangements, while
Miss Agnes Chapman was in general charge of the arrangements, while
Miss Agnes Chapman was in general charge of the arrangements, while
Miss Agnes Chapman was in general charge of the arrangements, while
Miss Agnes Chapman was in general charge of the arrangements, while
Miss Agnes Chapman was in general charge of the arrangements, while
Miss Agnes Chapman was in general charge of the arrangements, while
Miss Agnes Chapman was in general charge of the arrangements, while
Miss Agnes Chapman was in general charge of the arrangements, while
Miss Agnes Chapman was in general charge of the arrangements, while
Miss Agnes Chapman was in general charge of the arrangements, while
Miss Agnes Chapman was in general charge of the arrangements, while
Miss Agnes Chapman was in general charge of the arrangements, while
Miss Agnes Chapman was in general charge of the arrangements, while
Miss Agnes Chapman was in general charge of the arrangements, while
Miss Agnes Chapman was in general charge of the arrangements, while
Miss Agnes Chapman was in general charge of the arrangements, while
Miss Agnes Chapman was in general charge of the arrangements, while
Miss Agnes Chapman was in general charge of the arrangements, while
Miss Agnes Chapman was in general charge of the arrangements and the second charge of the arrangements and the charge of the arrangements and the charge of the arrangements and the charge of the candy the candy the candy the c

Two Men Went Into Occum the hope of the committee that seed amount; $10,000, might be obtained this week.

Miss Bessie Whiting, reader, in Peg O' My Heart, at the Second Congregational church Monday at $ p. in gational church Monday at $ p. in Admission 25c.—Adv.

Admission 25c.—Adv.

Admission 25c.—Adv.

Alfred Cote and Arthur Langlais, who gave their addresses as Willimantic, fell into the hands of the law as represented by Constable object of the Second Congregational church Monday at $ p. in Mon

Lambert was also sent for and the two men were brought here and locked up at police headquarters, one charged with breach of the peace and the other with breach of the peace and resisting an officer. They secured ball'soon after they were locked up.

RUMMAGE SALE Successful Event by Hope Rebekah

Lodge on Friday. Thayer building, whose use was kind-ly given by Judge Thayer, Hope Re-beicah lodge, No. 21, I.O.O. F., con-duced a rummage sale on Friday morning and afternoon and disposed of a large quantity of articles which will result in a material gain of between $30 and $40 to the treasury. The sale $30 and $40 to the treasury. The sale began at 9.30 and continued until 5 with the following committee in charge: Mrs. Eva Wilson, Mrs. Ada Revell, Mrs. Lillian Tuttle, Mrs. Kate Tottey, Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, Mrs. Muriel Roessler and Mrs. Carrie Par-

Thomas A. Holmes assisted as doorkeeper and George A. Burlingham helped by doing all the carting for the adles in charge of the sale.

PRIESTS AND PROSPECTORS MURDERED BY ESKIMOS. North of Chesterfield Inlet, Hudson Bay-Work of Inland Tribes,

The Pas. Manitoba, Oct. 29 .- Two Catholic priests and two prospectors are reported to have been murdered by Eskimos north of Chesterfield Intellet, Hudson bay, according to Captain Lockhart, of the Royal Northwest police boat Village Bell, which arrived heretoday from Northern wa-

Captain Lockhart said he believed the four men had been murdered by the same inland tribe of Eskimos that the same inland tribe of Eskimos that attacked Radford and Street, the explorers. Peaceful shore Eskimos told him that the inland tribe had heard the constables were looking for the men who attacked the explorers, and therefore were suspicious of all therefore were suspicious

George Thatcher Lord. George Thatcher Lord.

fter a long illness with a compliion of diseases that had made him invalid for nearly the past 18 nths, but had only been recognized serious since early in September, death of George Thatcher Lord urred on Friday morning, at 9.30 pock. He was 52 years old and was n in Portland, Conn, h both his father's and his mothis side he traced back to colonial testry, whose members played an portant part in the early life of a state and nution. His first Amer-

GEORGE THATCHER LORD

can ancestor on his father's side was Thomas Lord, who came from England and was one of the earliest settlers of Hartford. *Mr. Lord's great-grandfather, George

*Mr. Lord's great-grandfather, George Lord, was a fatmer and large land owner in the fown of Marlborough, Hartford county. Noble Everett Lord was the grandfather of George T. Lord. He was born in 1804 in Marlborough and after his marriage removed o Hebron, where he lived until the time of his death. His father was Joshua B. Lord, who was born in Hebron, served in the Civil war and then returned to Hartford, where he carried on the undertaking business for a on the undertaking business for a number of years and diet in that city in 1874.

dience.

Miss Agnes Chapman was in general charge of the arrangements, while Miss Myrtle Lumis had charge of the ticket table, and Miss Lucy Blackburn and Miss Henrietta Boyens comprised the committee in charge of Otis was elected to the legislature of Massachusetts and from that moment he was one of the leaders in the discussion and development of opinic phich preceded the Revolutionary. While Mr. Lord was only an in his parents removed to Coiches and he received his early education in the district schools of that town, and graduated from Bacon Academy. He then entered the railroad service. He then entered the railroad service, and for 16 years served as agent for the New York, New Haven and Hart-ford Railroad company at Colchester a success, and a light collation was served.

Miss Whiting will remain in Norwich over Sunday as the guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Elmsr D. Kinsman of Winchester street. Before she returns to Boston Miss Whiting will give a realize. Page O. Mrs. ford Railroad company at Colchester and Turnerville. Resigning his position at Turnerville he came to Norwich in 1895. In company with R. J. Roadstrand, with whom he established an undertaking business under the firm name of Roadstrand & Lord. On Nov. 17, 1827. Mr. Lord purchased his pariner's interest and became sole owner. The entrance of Mr. Lord into the undertaking husiness in this city revolutionized the business here as he introduced the most modern ing will give a reading. Peg O' My Hearl, at the Second Congregational BY ALPHA SIGMAS as he introduced the most modern methods and facilities and rapidly built up a prosperous business which was a tribute to the ability; tact and Returning to England.

Neville Jessop and two children left this week for ... ew York city and sallend as the machine went into the mill and been in poor health for some weeks and is returning to his former home in England. He was accompanied as far as New York by Fred Bentley of Lafayette street who returned home. Thursday.

Church Supper.

About 100 were served at the Suppling to make them of the suppling to make them of the suppling to make them leave the mill and bash when the foreman told them to leave they fred Bentley of Lafayette street who returned home. Thursday.

Limit a foreman who was at the Junior department of the Sunday school was well attended and the evening proved very successful. The evening proved very successful. The leave in provided no end of sport for in good of the Durfee Mig. Co., having the volume people. Trying to hit the black cat with a large gas balloon was one of the state board of examples of the machine went into the mill and the machine went into the mill and the provided no end of sport for the young people. Trying to hit the black cat with a large gas balloon was offered to member of the state board of examples at far as New York by Fred Bentley of Lafayette street who returned home. Thursday.

Church Supper.

About 100 were served at the suppler that the Second Congression and the Second Congression and the suppler that the Second Congression and the suppler that the Second Congression and the supplementation of the first the Junior department of the Sunday school was well attended and the Junior department of the Sunday school was well attended and the evening provided no end of sport for line you constitute the young people. Trying to hit the black cat with a large gas balloon was offered to provide the member of the sunday school was well attended and the evening provided no end of sport for the young people. Trying to hit the black cat with a large gas balloon was offered the member of the state of the first manner that the provided no end of sport for the young people a number took occasion to have their Connecticut. fortunes told by the mysterious fortune teller. Fraternally gree Mason. Fraternally Mr. Lord was a 32d defortunes told by the mysterious fortune teller.

The evening came to an end with a march followed by refreshments. To facilitate the carrying on of the games eight different groups were formed with eight in each group. The committee in charge of the social comprised Mrs. Sydney Smith, chairman, Miss Hazel Andrews, Miss Mollie Kampf, Miss Nina Perry and Mrs.

Daniel S. Haviland,

Fraternally Mr. Lord was a 32d degree Mason, being raised in St. James of the had held office in Franklin chapter, Council Columbian Commanders, No. 4, K. T., and in the Consistory. He was a member of Spinx Temple of the Mystic Shrine of Hartford, Nor-Miss Hazel Andrews, Miss Mollie Kampf, Miss Nina Perry and Mrs.

Daniel S. Haviland,

Rev. Irving H. Berg at Broadway Congregational Church.

had never taken any pasticularly appart in public affairs, although we residing in Hebron he served as just of the peace and grand juror. He a communicant of Christ Episoc churchi had never taken any pasticularly active

The Brotherhood of Broadway Congregational church held a special meeting on Friday evening at 8 o'clock in the church parlors, when they had Rev. Irving H. Berg of the South Congregational church, Hartford, to speak to them preceding the social hour which closed the evening. Members of Men's clubs in other churches attended by invitation and there were about 50 men present.

President Herbert W. Galliup conducted the meeting and introduced Rev. Mr. Berg after devotional exercises had been conducted by Rev. Frank Palmer.

The Hartford pastor was heard with pleasure by his audience as he spoke Miss Mary Frances King.

The Hartford pastor was heard with pleasure by his audience as he spoke earnestly and entertainingly upon some of the things that an organization of men such as the brotherhood might have as ideals to make it worth while. He was given a rising vote of thanks.

At the close o the meeting refreshments were served.

RULING ON LANGUAGE

TEST OF SEAMEN'S LAW Department of Commerce Minimizes its Rigidity.

Washington, Oct. 29—A ruling on the language test required by the new seamen's law, made today by the department of commerce, will minimize the rigidity of that provision which has been much complained of by shipping interests. It orders customs collectors to make no examinations if the master of a vessal certifies that his crew fulfills the requirements and that the provision was a solution menchant of 51 East orders customs collectors to make no examinations if the master of a vessal certifies that his crew fulfills the requirements and that the provision was a solution menchant of 51 East orders customs collectors to make no examinations if the master of a vessal certifies that his crew fulfills the requirements and that the provision was a first orders customs collectors to make no examinations if the master of a vessal certifies that his in the Flower heapital in his 89th year. pleasure by his audience as he spoke sarnestly and entertainingly upon some of the things that an organization of King.

the rigidity of that provision which has been much complained of by shipping interests. It orders customs collectors to make no examinations if the master of a vessel certifies that his crew fulfills the requirements and that aumicient knowledge of language to larguage to be required.

The Chinese censor here is under instructions to stop all telegrams regarding the monarchial agitation. He refused to transmit the full text of Japan's communication to China over Japan's communication to China over in business for several years in Lon-the land lines to the Yangtee region. don. On his return to New York he

DANVERS, MASS., WOMAN RECEIVES BLESSING

Mrs. W. H. Brown Tells How She Was Relieved After Long Suffering.

Mrs. W. H. Brown of Danyers.
Mass., was a victim of stomach trouble which tortured lier for years. She tried many treatments and medicines and got little relief.

Then she took Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and got results right away. In telling of her case she wrote:

"For years I have suffered terribly with stomach trouble. I could find no relief. Then, like a blessing from above, I heard of your remedy; sent for it, and after a few treatments am being cured. I am going to tell all my friends of your miraculous remedy."

Mayr's Wonderful Remedy gives permanent results for stomach, liver permanent results for stomach, liver and intestinal aliments. Eat as much and whateven you like. No more distress after eating, pressure of gas in the stomach and around the heart. Get one bottle of your druggist now and try it on an absolute guarantee if not satisfactory money will be returned.

went into business with William H.
Purdy, and retired 30 years ago.

He was a member of the New York
Historical society, the Metropolitan Museum of Art, the Society of Colonial Wars, and the Sons of the American Revolution. Mr. Huntington was also a member of the Century club and The Players. His wife, who was Miss Mary Tenart Irving, four daughters and a son survive him.

Mr. Huntington was a descendant of

Mr. Huntington was a descendant of one of the founders of Norwich. He was a cousin of Frederick J. Hunting-ton of Norwich, president of the Hunt-ington Family association. ONNIE TALAS GUILTY

OF FIRST DEGREE MURDER. Was Houseboy for His Victim, Mrs. Elizabeth R. Nichols. New York Oct. 29 .- Onnie Talas, c

jury for complicity in the murder R. Nichols, who met death in her Deworth League: The reading was attendance during both the afternoon and evening.

Cake, aprons, candy, ice cream and tea were among the offerings at the sale and the room was attractively decorated in pumpkin moonshines and autumn leaves, with the colors, yellow and black arranged in the decorations.

In general charge were the class president, Mrs. J. M. Chapman; the vice president, Mrs. J. M. Chapman; the vice president, Mrs. Milo R. Waters, and the chalrman of the entertainment committee. At the tables were the following:

Cake, Mrs. C. Eugene Saunders, Mrs. Milo R. Waters; and the room was attractively applianced by the enthusiastic audinous characters in the play was excellent. Her spleindent of the play was loudly applianced by the enthusiastic audinous.

Mrs. Agnes Chapman was in general charge of the arrangements, while Mrs. Agnes Chapman was in general charge of the arrangements, while Mrs. Agnes Chapman was in general charge of the arrangements, while Mrs. Agnes Chapman was in general charge of the arrangements, while Mrs. Agnes Chapman was in general charge of the arrangements, while Mrs. Agnes Chapman was in general charge of the arrangements, while Mrs. Agnes Chapman was in general charge of the arrangements, while Mrs. Agnes Chapman was in general charge of the arrangements, while Mrs. Agnes Chapman was in general charge of the arrangements, while Mrs. Agnes Chapman was in general charge of the arrangements, while Mrs. Agnes Chapman was in general charge of the arrangements, while Mrs. Agnes Chapman was in general charge of the arrangements, while Mrs. Agnes Chapman was in general charge of the arrangements, while Mrs. Agnes Chapman was in general charge of the arrangements, while Mrs. Agnes Chapman was in general charge of the arrangements, while Mrs. Agnes Chapman was in general charge of the arrangements, while Mrs. Agnes Chapman was in general charge of the arrangements, while Mrs. Agnes Chapman was in general charge of the arrangements, while Mrs. Agnes Chapman was in general charge of the a Thias, who is 21 years old, declared that he had been bound by three men who entered the house. He took the stand in his own defense and denied he had confessed to the police that he knew anything concerning the crime. The police charged that he had admitted the robbers to the Nichols home.

OPERATIVE IN NOVEMBER Twenty-Four Operations on Feeble- We Place and Replace Minded Scheduled.

Madison. Wis. Oct. 22.—The Wisconsin sterilization law will be put into effect: in November, according to a statement from the state board of control tuday, with twenty-four operations on patients in the institution for feeble-minded at Chippewa Falls.

This law was enacted at recent session of the legislature. The intervening time has been spent in answering the requirement of the statute in holding meetings and consulting the patients and relatives.

A CORRECT GOWN FOR THE SCHOOL GIRL

THESE FALL DAYS

Brown serge fashions this durable gown. The cuffs, collar and belt are overset, with Ian colored broadcloth outlined with white silk soutache braid, and a wide brown silk windsor tie finishs the blouse. The ckirt is rather closely bow plaited. There is no costume prettier or more serviceable for the small girl.

CLEANSE THE BLOOD AND AVOID DISEASE

When your blood is impure, weak, thin and debilitated, your system becomes susceptible to any or all Put-your blood in good condition. Hood's Sarsaparilla acts directly and peculiarly on the blood-it puri fies, enriches and revitalizes it and builds up the whole system. Hood's Barsaparilla has stood the test of forty years. Get it today. It is sure to help you.

CUMMINGS & RING Funeral Directors and Embalmers 337 MAIN STREET

Opposite Post Office.

hone 321-2 Lady Assistant

Maurice Naurice Sample Shop

(4) HOUR (4)

Naist Sale 8 Snappy Styles

· Special for Merchants' Week .. 6 to 10 p. m.

194 Main Street Wauregan Block

Educator Toasterettes IN BULK OR PACKAGES RALLION'S sell them

Our Graduates

It will pay you to advise with us if interested in a BUSI-NESS EDUCATION.

NORWICH BUSINESS COLLEGE

has a FACULTY of Trained Specialists - Results - more than you expect. You may enter at any time

Day or Night Classes at, THE NORWICH BUSINESS COLLEGE

W. E. CANFIELD, Proprietor

99-105 Main Street

OPENING of the Aetna Bowling Alleys

in Shannon's new MAJESTIC BUILDING on Shetucket Street Monday evening at 7.30 sharp

Fireplace Fixtures

SPARK GUARDS FOLDING SCREENS BRASS AND IRON ANDIRONS GAS LOGS

Open Saturday Evenings until

87 Water Street

DR. SHAHAN SPECIALIST

on Diseases of the Stomach and 2-4 and 7-8 p. m. Tel. 821